THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH EXPANDS APPLICATION FOR FLORIDA BIRTH RECORD TO CHARLOTTE COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR

Charlotte County, FL ---- Englewood residents now have a local option to get a copy of their Florida Birth Certificate. No more having to drive into Port Charlotte to the Health Department. Residents can now visit the Charlotte County Tax Collector's Englewood Branch office to have a (Florida) Certified Birth Certificate printed. Certificates will be printed at the time of application in our Englewood Branch office located at 6868 San Casa Drive beginning Thursday March 10, 2016. With proper identification, any person of legal age may be issued a certified copy of a birth record (except for those birth records under seal) for a birth event that occurred more than 100 years ago.

The Charlotte County Tax Collector, Vickie L. Potts is excited to offer our residents more choices and greater convenience when applying for his/her birth records. For a complete list of services, locations and times of operations, please visit the Charlotte County Tax Collector's website at <http://taxcollector.charlottecountyfl.gov>. For additional information, please call our Contact Center at 941-681-3710 or 941-743-1350 or email us at taxcollector@charlottecountyfl.gov

Consumers can still apply for a birth record via mail or at one of the Health Departments throughout the state of Florida. The local Health Department is located at 1100 Loveland Blvd., Port Charlotte, FL 33980.

The Charlotte County Tax Collector, Vickie L. Potts, and her staff look forward to continuing to provide convenient and efficient service to the residents of Charlotte County.
